New York Lawyer Marries Mrs. Olga Thomas, Daughter of Late Colonel Piorkowski

Late Colonel Piorkowski
The final decree of divorce having been granted to his first wife two weeks ago, Samuel Jones Wagstaff, a prominent New York lawyer, was married yesterday afternoon to Mrs. Olga. Thomas, daughter of the late Colonel Arthur Emil Piorkowski, at the home of Mrs. Clark Prichett, 320 Park Avenue. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Howard Duffield, of the First Preshyterian Church.

The former Mrs. Wagstaff before her marriage was Miss Pauline Le Roy French, a sister of Miss Julia French, whose elopement with her chauffeur, Jack Geraghty, in Newport caused a sensation in 1911.

It has only been three weeks since the new Mrs. Wagstaff obtained her divorce from Arthur Paul Themas in Ulster County, New York.

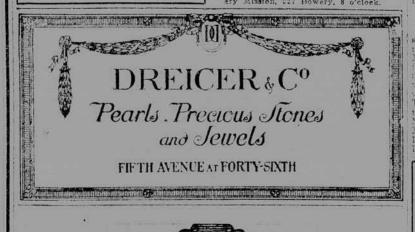

The marriage was a quiet affair, only the families and closest friends

The marriage was a quiet affair, only the families and closest friends of the bride and bridegroom attending. Mrs. Herbert Harrington, a cousin of the bride, was her only attendant, while George Wagstaff was his brother's best man. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Augusta, Ga., where they will pass their honey.

Mr. Wagstaff is a member of the Union and Knickerbocker clubs, the St. Nicholas Society and is a graduate of Harvard, in the class of 1909.
